Privacy Act Notice Section 6109 requires you to furnish your correct TIN to persons who must file information returns with the IRS to report interest, dividends, and other certain income paid to you, mortgage interest you paid, the acquisition or abandonment of secured property, or contributions you made to an IRA. The IRS uses the TIN for identification purposes and to help verify the accuracy of your tax return. You must provide the TIN whether or not you are required to file a tax return. Payers must generally withhold a percentage as determined by the IRS of taxable interest, dividend, and certain other payments to a payee who does not furnish a TIN to a payer. Certain penalties may apply.

Penalties If you fail to furnish your correct Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN) to a requester, you are subject to an IRS penalty of $50 for each failure unless your failure is due to a reasonable cause and not to willful neglect. If you make a false statement without a reasonable basis that results in no backup withholding, you are subject to an IRS penalty of $500. Willfully falsifying certification or affirmation may subject you to criminal penalties including fines and/or imprisonment. If the requestor discloses or uses TINs in violation of Federal Law, the requester may be subject to civil penalties and imprisonment.
